During the Convention Han, Henry Waterson made and et his rharacteristic tariff speeches, and pitrited into the Republican party as only he knows haw to do. In closing he said:

"The issue these made up is simply this: At far as the South is concerned, shall we here the responsible government of intelligence and property, or the irresponsible government of hote force and martial law! There is no middle ground for anybody to stand on. The white peohrote force and martial law! There is no middle ground for anybody to stand on. The white people of the South must be trusted entirely of controlled entirely. It they are trusted, they must be left free from molestation and criticism to set and keep their house in order. If they are not trusted, they must be remained oner mane to a state of military subjugation. On this issue the Hemocratic party stands to fraternity and mion; the Republican party for repression and disunion, and wn uppeal to God to witness and the people to confirm the justice of our emuse."

Forty-Five Long Covered,

Br. Louis, May 17.—Advices from Mississipid river towns above here say that at 4:13 o'clock this morning a break occurred in the Eny levee, at a point about two niles below the Hannlini bridge, and this was followed at 6:45 by a larger end more surlous one above the hridge a short distance. The wildest excitement privalled in Hinnihal, es well as smong the few farmers who bad stub-bornly remained in the bottoms. The two undred men whu had been engaged all night in the work of stopping seeps and pluring bags of sand on top of the levee to keep the river lack attempted to close the breaks, but without success. The mure seasible farmers had removed all their live stock to the bluff, six miles distant, but not a fuw recessined until the moment of the calcenty; rensequently, they sustained serious lasses. Hogs, cows and horans could be seen swimming in the flood until thny came in contact with some phatacle, agen which their bodies would be naugloil. The smeller houses le the bottoms are wrecked. As yet no has of ku-man lives is reported. The territory now covered with water is forty-five miles long and six miles wide, with fifty thousand neres under cultivation. ## FATAL QUARREL

Two Young Men Engage in a Deadly Fight

flicomington, Ind., May 20.-Word has just been received hera from Washington Township of a sensational shooting scrape that will probably result in the death of Henry Carr. From particulars at hand it seems that Heary Carr and Vincent Farr, two young men much respected and of good families, had quarreled aome time before, and while at Suadey-school his efternoon, they got into a dispute again, this time over a young lady. They euch started home with their girls in a huggy, whon angry words began to psss. Each jumped from his buggy and with thirty-sight-calibor revolvers began firing at each other, until five shots had been exchanged from each side. The leads exhausted, Farr caught hold of Carr end began beating him over the head with his re voiver until Carr dropped to the ground. Until then It was not known that any shot hind taken effect, but examination proved that one of the sbots had cotered the lutestines, and is almost certain to prove futei. This information produced great excitement among the Sunday-school that was standln; by und mutely witcosed the tragedy. As soon as Carr foll to the ground Ferr got in his buggy and rode off, not knowing of the gun-shot wound. Owing to the high standing of all the parties the excitement is intense. Farr's father! a candidate for the nomination of sheriff on the Republican teket. Deputy Sheriff f'uyne left at 9 o'clock to-night to arrest Farr. It can not be asrortained who fired the first shet, as reports are very conflict-

Greenback Statuary.

There is one industry in Washington that has no match anywhere else, and there is but one man engaged in it. He is a crippled veteran, and he makes statuary out of the macerated pulp of worn-out greenbacks. When our paper currency becomes useless from wear and tear it is macerated, and this man, one day, out of lills curiodly, modeled a piece of this plantic stuff luto the image of a dog.

It was not long before he had a tittle shop of his own, and there he made his first bust, one of Lincoln, taking a photograph as a copy. Sluce then he has made busts of Washington, Grant, Lee, Logni, Arthur and many others. First he makes a clay model, and around this he places soft plasteredparls. When the plaster bardens, he digs out the clay, and into the plaster mold be pounds the greenlack pulp As may be supposed, this statusty thuls a ready sale. In addition to the aluties being good likenesses, it is quite a movelly to possess a place of statuary composed of amterial that men represented a hundred thousand dollars, more or tess. - Golden Duys.
